

I feel that the no call list is very important and should be kept at all costs.....nothing is more annoying than people calling at all hours and having access to ones personal information.